Testimonials from Survivors

Participants will receive a flower to throw into the harbor.

Each flower represents the hopes and struggles of survivors as they work to end violence in their lives, and also honors those whose lives have been lost to domestic violence.

A light snack will be served.

RSVP by September 25th to Domestic Violence Services of Greater New Haven (DVS) at 203-865-1957.

DVS is a program of

*No peace in the world without peace in the nations.
No peace in the nations without peace in the towns.
No peace in the towns without peace in the home.
No peace in the home without peace in the heart.*
